Enterprise Business Travel Policy

Travel Approval

Business travel must be approved by the employee's manager before reservations are made when required by company procedure.

Flights

Employees should select reasonable economy-class airfare for standard business travel unless an approved exception applies.

Hotels

Employees should use company-approved hotels or booking channels when available. Reasonable lodging expenses may be reimbursed according to company limits.

Ground Transportation

Public transportation, company-approved rental cars, taxis, and rideshare services may be used when appropriate for the business trip.

Meals

Reasonable business travel meal expenses may be reimbursed subject to applicable daily limits and receipt requirements.

Expenses

Employees must submit travel expenses through the approved expense system with required receipts and business justification.

Cancellations

Employees should cancel unused reservations promptly to avoid unnecessary company charges.
